IDA LEDFORD'S GOOD RACE.

The local racing scene shifted Monday to Harlem and with the shift came mean, cloudy, rainy weather. It has been Harlem's luck the entire season to have bad weather. John Conroy said yesterday, however, that unless it stormed enough to wash out the track the meeting would be carried on to the end of the scheduled time and that also Lakeside would race its fifteen days the same as last season.

During the last two weeks the entire grandstand and betting ring has been enclosed with glass.

Ida Ledford's five furlongs in 1:00 1/4 was Harlem's Monday afternoon feature and the way in which the filly won led many to believe that she is one of the best of her sex now in training in the west. Ida had Burns up and after waiting in a good position to the stretch the filly galloped over the leaders and at the finish was hard held.

Outside of the first race the sport was tame but this one was extremely close between Loysetta and Lucky Monday. The latter won by a nose.

Steamer and Found both had most hollow victories and Jim and Periwig could have won much easier than they did had their riders so chose.

HAWTHORNE RULINGS.

The judges at Hawthorne have announced that jockey Dugan is ruled off, jockey Hill suspended until January 1, 1900, jockey N. Ray suspended indefinitely and revocation of his license as jockey and trainer recommended, and jockey George Taylor's suspension is continued indefinitely. Trainer Blum was exonerated. Judge Rees has gone to his home at Memphis and Judge Kuhl will go to San Francisco shortly.

Post 10 minutes. Start good for all but Miss Floride. Won handily; next seven driving. Ramiro II. was much the best. His legs stood the journey. Frank Wagner and Derby Maid showed great improvement and closed strong. Loyalty, Hill Billy and Jessie S. were run into the ground and had nothing left. The latter stopped all over in the stretch. Post 5 minutes. Start good. Winkfield driving hard. Found outleashed her field and had an easy race. She is an exceptionally fast filly that likes to run in front by herself. Canace ran her usual good honest race. She was badly outrun the first part of it but in the last three furlongs made up ground rapidly. Diggs and Prestar had a battle royal for third place. Off at the first break to a good start. Won handily; second and third easily. Streamer has improved with each of his last three starts and ran a smashing good race. Burns placed him nicely, and when called upon the colt went to the front like a flash. King's Highway came to life with a start again. He is one of the acrobats of the track. The gelding seemed to be outleashed here, but he ran a fine race. Benneville hardly ran up to his recent mark. Alice Turner was raced into submission by Benneville the first three-quarters. Bishop Reed and Ein seemed to be outleashed.

Winner—Ch. c. by Donatello—Lady Rossington.
Off at first break to a good start. Won after a hard hand drive. The others were doing their best. Jimp, giving away a lot of weight, ran an extra good race. He was well ridden and could have won farther off. Einstein looked to be winning at the head of the stretch. Here Domineck tried to use his whip and in doing so dropped the gelding's head. Then he naturally floundered badly. Domineck is a midget and should not be given a whip. He does well to stick on a horse and as far as his strength goes is a clever youngster. Tappan does not run as well as he did when J. H. Smith had him. Barataria took the long route. Egbart had a lot of speed but could not carry it far. The others were outleashed.

Winner—B. g. by Argye—Peri.
Off at first break to a good start. Won mildly driven; second and third driving hard. Periwig is in his best form now and ran another good race. He liked the going, which was a trifle cuppy, and could have gone to the front at any time. Mistral II. lost a lot of ground on the far turn. Hamilton started through on the inside with him, then changed his mind and pulled out and went around. Had the horse got through on the inside he would have given Periwig a stout argument. Ed Tipton had speed, but not as much as in his last race. He quit much earlier, too. Moroni ran a fair race and Monongah a bad one.

Winner—B. f. by Buckmaster—Pickup.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won pulling up; second just as easily; third and fourth driving hard. Found outleashed her field and had an easy race. She is an exceptionally fast filly that likes to run in front by herself. Canace ran her usual good honest race. She was badly outrun the first part of it but in the last three furlongs made up ground rapidly. Diggs and Prestar had a battle royal for third place. Burns outfinished Winkfield and Diggs got the decision. Hugh Penny seems to be a "has been." Athy had some speed early.
